BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE PROPRIETORS OF THE TIMES

THE CANADIAN MIRROR.

The news of the destruction by fire of the Dominion Parliament House at Ottawa, says The Times will arouse serious and thoughtful throughout the whole British Empire. We can best conceive the intensity of the shock to Canada if we think of the impression which would be created in this country by a similar misfortune to our own Parliament Buildings at Westminster. The Parliament House at Ottawa was the real heart of the Dominion; every legislative assembly on the American Continent was modelled on the House of Commons; no Parliament buildings in Europe, not accepting our own, more impressively suggested an emanation from the British Empire. The Pacific were justly proud of this Parliament House. It was always one of the first objects in the Dominion to which the steps of the stranger were guided, and none so soon as it was justly beyond the requirement of the capital without receiving an enthusiastic welcome. It is some considerable time since a small circle of those who are acquainted with the excellent library, which was contained in a hall former of a library been saved. The main fire is irreparable.

LESS BEER IN GERMANY.

The German Government say that beer has suddenly applied a further and considerable restriction of the production of beer. The output of the breweries in the month of May 1902 was 60 per cent. in March of last year and the output has now been reduced by another 12 per cent. The Government say that the new restrictions applied, in consequence of the fact that the output of beer in the month of October last, so that the breweries were unable to produce additional beer during the summer months. It is also announced that the Government have decided to place a duty on beer imported from foreign countries, which will be "free." According to figures published by the breweries, the production of beer in Germany is

The Australian Agents General in London gave a dinner of welcome to Mr. Andrew Fisher, the new Prime Minister of the Commonwealth, last night. There were distinguished company, which included Lord Kitchener, Mr. Bonar Law, and Mr. L. Harcourt.

Mr. Bonar Law, proposing the health of the guest, said: "Mr. Fisher's career and the needs of such a career are, undoubtedly, perhaps, of the greatest of all the issues to be decided in this war. That the man who, whether he is instructed to do so or not, is everything we prized, should have active acquiescence in the role of military despotism, the enemies kept a special stock of venom directed against him. That was not surprising, for the British Empire was a vast, uncharted sea, everything that made the German mistake, a system, which was based on material gains alone. The German knew no rule in war or peace except success. They not only did not understand that there was a limit to success, which, even from a military point of view,

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

MILLICENT, FRIDAY.

On Thursday evening, in the Lady Hall, Mullinger, and earlier at a matinee at the Lyceum, a theatrical entertainment was given by Lady Castlemaine in aid of the Mullinger Relief Fund, was given in presence of a large representative audience. Misses Wallace and Miss Green (soprano), and Misses Wallace's "MARTHA," and some classical music. Lady Castlemaine, who wore the most beautiful gown, was the chief attraction, appearing in South Westmest in support of the fund, and she was accompanied by her husband in two of the plays, as well as her daughter, the Hon. Evelyn Handcock and Miss Evelyn Handcock. The Hon. Evelyn Handcock and gentlemen also took part. Miss O'Callaghan, Mrs. M. M. Levine, Major O'Callaghan, Hushner, R. F. A. Major, Mr. George, R. M. Brooke, R. F. A. and Mr. A. Logan. All the parties were excellently fitted, and the of historic merit. It was a high standard of Mrs. Batson, Mullinger, another earnest worker in the same charitable interests, that the Mullinger "Comforts" Committee organized amateur dramatic companies to do good work, a request to which she kindly and most promptly acceded. The plays were admirably staged. Major C. Stedman Hawk acted as stage manager and having charge of the scenic arrangements.
